6/29/65 Phoned Larry Stern, Wash. Post, when in town today. He has been busy and hasn't been able to read much of book. He said he has read about a half or three-quarters of in inch of it (ribbon copy, thicker). He said that what he has read ~~has~~ has "impressed" him by "the reasonableness of its tone" and that it was well or solidly reasoned. left Hoover pick up & plan much more—busy
